HOUSE LEADERS IN WET CAMPAIGN GIVE TESTIMONY IN CASE

SENATOR REED QUESTIONS PROHIBITION UNIT CHEMIST CLOSELY

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 15.—Congress has the power to permit and legalize cider and wine containing possibly from 2.7 and 11.68 per cent. of alcohol to be sold for use in the home, Representative Hill, Republican, of Maryland, declared today before the Senate liquor committee.

Hill, a leader of the wets in the House, based his statement upon decisions of the courts in the case brought against him by the government because he manufactured such cider and wine in his home.

The case, he said, was tried under section 29 of the Volstead act, permitting the manufacture in the home of non-intoxicating cider and wine. The jury held liquors of this alcoholic content was not intoxicating and the government did not appeal.

Representative Hill was the first of a number of members of the House who appeared to close the case for the wets.

At the outset it was agreed that the wets could take up the remainder of their time with argument at the close of the presentation by the drys.

Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church, interposed some objection, suggesting that the drys have the closing, but Senator Goff, Republican, of West VGirginia, said the wets had the affirmative and under the usual practice they would have the closing.

While Representative Hill was talking, Senator Reed, Democrat, of Missouri, came into the room and there was brought in a number of fancy looking stills.

Senator Reed then announced that he had not finished his examination of Assistant Secretary Andrews of the Treasury, in charge of prohibition enforcement. He picked up a steam pressure cooker and asked General Andrews if that could not be used as a still. The General referred the Senator to Dr. Dorn, chemist of the prohibition unit, who conceded that the cooker would make a still, but a rather imperfect one.

Dr. Dorn had a still of his own, consisting of a copper pot, with a tube leading off and a condensor.

It was described before the committee. Then Reed produced a gallon capacity charred keg, which it was conceded could be used to "age" liquor.

"Do you know anything else they are used for?" asked Reed.

"No sir," said Dorne.

"Is there any law against their sale."

"I'm not sure of that."

Next Reed produced a small package containing charred oak sticks. These are sold in Washington, and Dr. Dorn said they could be used to "ripen" whiskey.

Corn sugar, from which it was developed yesterday that liquor could be made, next was produced. Dorn identified it as such.

"Do you know whether production of this corn sugar has increased within a few years from one and one quarter million pounds a year to 500,000,000 pounds?"

"I know enough about it to know that these figures are wrong. There has been a large increase. It is used generally in the home now."

"Alcohol is made out of it?"

"To some extent."

"You don't know to what extent?"

"No."

"Would you say use of this sugar as an edible product has increased four fold."

"It has increased but I could not say how much."

"They make whiskey out of malt, don't they?"

"No," said Dorn.

The crowd laughed, and the witness added: "I'm talking of distilled whiskey."

"It could be used, couldn't it?" pursued Reed.

"Certainly, but I don't believe it is used for that purpose."

"Don't put your beliefs in. I know it is used for that purpose," said Reed.

The Missouri Senator then produced a Department of Commerce report showing that corn sugar consumption had advanced from 152,870,000 pounds in 1919 to 527,909,513 in 1923.

"If that proportionate increase kept up then we are using now something over one billion pounds a year," observed Reed.

Flavoring extracts for rye and bourbon whiskey and Holland gin were put in evidence.

The legend of one of the bottles was read. It concluded with the statement that "nothing is more delicious than plum pudding with brandy flavored by this extract."

Dorn said he doubted whether there was any extensive use of the extracts by bootleggers.

"Isn't this stuff used to doctor up illicit liquor?" persisted Reed.

"I don't think so. The stuff made in these small stills is such vile stuff that they don't try to doctor it up."

"I'm not talking about the little stills," returned Reed. "I'm talking about the big stills and their output."

Dorn agreed that the big distillers used it.

Turning back to General Andrews, Senator Reed asked for and the witness agreed to furnish this information: The number of liquor prosecutions in the past twelve months together with the number of search warrants issued and the number sustained over the same period.

The production of grapes by years before and since prohibition, together with a contrast of prices over the years.

The number of persons killed or wounded by federal prohibition agents and the coast guard.

The actual amount of liquor seized by federal agents, including the coast guard.

A referendum on prohibition was argued in a statement filed by Representative Mary T. Norton, Democratic, of New Jersey, declaring prohibition and temperance "have no relation to each other."

"It would seem that there is but one solution to the horrible condition in our country today—a referendum to the people and allow them to decide definitely whether or not they are in favor of prohibition," she said

BORAH DELIVERED CHALLENGE LIQUOR STATUTE VIOLATOR

DEBATE BETWEEN BORAH AND REED EXPECTED IN SENATE SOON

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 15.—The prohibition wave which has been raging in the Senate investigating committee seems certain to occupy a permanent place from now on in debate on the floor of the Senate itself.

As a result of the speech yesterday by Senator Borah (Republican), of Idaho, challenging those who are campaigning against the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead act, the modificationists are expected to renew as soon as opportunity offers their argument for a change.

The Senate looked forward to the intriguing prospects of a postponed battle on the floor some time soon between Senator Borah and Senator Reed, (Democrat), of Missouri, another of the Senate's ablest debaters and one of the leaders of the wet cause.

Senator Borah's speech yesterday is attracting unusual attention, and his argument for respect for the dry law led dry senators to break Senate precedent by joining in the applause.

Those utterances aroused more interest when members had an opportunity to weigh more carefully his charge to the wets.

The Idaho senator quoted the eighteenth amendment, referred to the binding interpretation placed upon it by the supreme court, and continued. "The amendment binds every official and every citizen and so long at it remains there it is the first duty of good citizenship to respect it an seek to uphold it.

"We are now engaged in a great campaign to find a way by which to evade the constitution without apparently doing so, find a method or a means by which we can counteract or nullify terms without specifically repealing this part of the constitution or without modifying it directly. It is a campaign to sterlize the constitution while professing to respect it.

"No one contends that those who are opposed to prohibition have not the right to carry on a campaign for the purpose of changing the constitution, but so long as it remains a part of the constitution, it is the duty of every citizen loyally to support and maintain it, not only in letter but in spirit."

Quoting from the testimony of District Attorney Buckner of New York, before the prohibition committee, Senator Borah characterized as a "cowardly, contemptible expediency" any proposal to let the states define and enforce the dry law.

"The great civil war was fought over that principle," he said. "To my mind it is treason, it is a deliberate evasion of the constitution. It is disloyalty to the first principle of a federal union and a violation of the oath which every federal officer takes when he takes office."

When Senator Bruce, (Democrat) of Maryland, suggested that the northern states virtually blocked enforcement of the fugitive slave law before the civil war, Senator Borah asked whether any one wanted "to appeal to a defiance of the constitution as a precedent."

Senators Edge, (Republican) of New Jersey, and Wadsworth, (Republican), of New York, defended the feasibility of permitting the sale of beverages non-intoxicating in face, but Senator Borah insisted that what the wets want is intoxicants in violation of the constitution.

FAILURE TO MAKE FINAL SETTLEMENT FINANCES IS CAUSE

ALSO BELIEVED DELAY IN TAKING UP SETTLEMENT WAR DEBT INVOLVED

By Associated Press.

Paris, April 15. — The French franc today sank to a new low level for all time. The official closing quoted it at 29.61 to the dollar and 143.80 to the pound.

By Associated Press.

New York, April 15.—In sympathy with a decline abroad, the French franc today broke a new low record in the local foreign exchange market where it was quoted at 3.37 1-4 cents, an overnight drop of about four points. In the absence of any new developments, the slump was attributed to a lack of support based on the delay, in improving the French government's financial position and in renewing efforts for funding the war debt to the United States.

Fresh weakness also developed in Belgian francs because of the slow progress in negotiations for an international loan.

Pastors and Deacons Conference is Held

A pastors' and deacons' conference was held Thursday at the Hope Baptist church with Rev. W. T. Bratton, pastor of the church presiding. The attendance was large and many subjects of vital interest to the church was discussed.

Lunch was served at the noon hour at the church by the ladies of the church.

There was a large attendance and much interest was taken in the discussion of the various subjects.

HAILSTONES AT POWELL REMAIN AFTER 35 DAYS

J. O. Burke brought to Corsicana today a bucketfull of hail stones that had been in a drift in a branch on his farm near Powell since the hailstorm of March 21. The hailstones were larger than marbles and were well formed as if they had been in an ice house since they fell. Mr. Burke stated that there were many more where he got the ones he brought to town.

WOMAN CANDIDATE SAYS SEX FAILS IN GAME OF VOTING

"IGNORANCE MANY WOMEN VOTERS APPALLING," MRS. BAUER SAYS

By Associated Press.

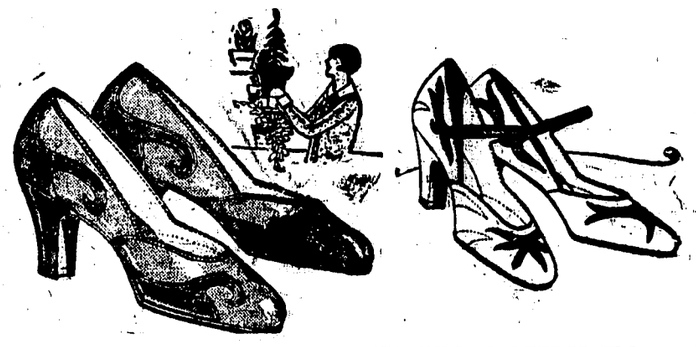

Chicago, April 15.—"The ignorance of many women voters is appalling," says Mrs. Bertha Bauer, unsuccessful candidate for Republican congressional nomination, who takes her defeat with a smile.

"They are ignorant of politics" said Mrs. Bauer, speaking of members of her sex she met at the polls. "I saw many come to vote without ever having registered. Some wanted to take their ballots home. Some wanted their relatives to go into the booths and help them to mark their ballots."

THIRTEEN LABOR MEMBERS OF HOUSE COMMONS SUSPENDED

CHARGED WITH HAVING WILLFULLY OBSTRUCTED BUSINESS

By Associated Press.

London, April 15.—Thirteen labor members of the house of commons were suspended during an all-night sitting of parliament for wilfully obstructing business. Neville Chamberlain, conservative, named the offending members and moved that they be suspended. His motion was carried by a vote of 163 to 76. Thereupon they withdrew from the House.

The House was in committee discussing the colony bill when certain members refused to pass the tellers when a vote had been ordered on adjournment of the debate.

MAKE PREPARATIONS ANNUAL CONFEDERATE REUNION BIRMINGHAM

PLANS BEING LAID TO SEND CAMP WINKLER MEMBERS TO REUNION

In a few more weeks the Confederate Veterans' reunion will be held in the beautiful city of Birmingham, Ala., the state that will ever hold the first White House of the Confederacy.

There, at that time, all that is left of the blood royal of the army of gray will pass again in grand review.

Unless you have attended one of the Confederate reunions, you can not appreciate or hardly imagine the picture, well worthy of any artist's dream, of the great parade of gray-clad soldiers as it passes in review through a sea of bared heads and a roar of reverent applause.

This army which will march again to the strains of "Dixie," through the streets of Birmingham, is a remnant of the hosts of Southern Knighthood and Southern chivalry that will bring to your mind the matchless bravery of Southern soldiery. The reunion means the meeting and handclasp of old comrades, the stirring of deep and tender memories that over and over again are wafted from these reunions, like perfumes from a faded and pressed flower.

They come from everywhere. White-haired, tall and stately sons of Virginia and other Southern states, will come. Others with bent forms and tottering steps will make this army.

Camp Winkler of Navarro county will be represented at Birmingham reunion. Ten or perhaps twelve of our men are anxious to go. The same railroad rates as allowed for the Memphis reunion have been authorized by the Southwestern Passenger Association, and the veterans will be well cared for on trains and at Birmingham.

Let us, the citizens of Corsicana and Navarro county, make it possible for the veteran soldiers to go.

Adjutant, Camp Winkler, No. 147, Navarro County.

REVIVAL SERVICES PROGRESS RICHLAND METHODIST CHURCH

Special to the Sun.

Richland, Texas, April 15.—A series of meetings are now being held at the M. E. church, conducted by Rev. W. O. Boatman, assisted by his father and brother. Everybody is taking great interest in the meeting and enjoying the eloquent and impressive sermons that are being delivered by these able ministers. We are praying, hoping and expecting a great revival. Everybody is cordially invited to attend, regardless of their denomination, as this is everybody's meeting, so come.

The Pollyanna Serenaders rendered a program, broadcasting from 6 till 7 Saturday evening, which was very much enjoyed by the Richlanders, as two highly cultured young ladies of our home town belong to the orchestra, Mrs. Jewel Brown Shooster and Miss Rubye Brown. Mrs. Shooster was the saxophonist and Miss Rubye the violinist. Miss Rubye also played a violin solo. Broadcasting from Station WFAA, Dallas.

DETAILS COMPLETED FOR STAGING SHRINE FROLICS NEXT WEEK

SPECIAL MEETING OF NAVARRO COUNTY SHRINE CLUB MONDAY NIGHT

The Navarro County Shrine Club met in special called session Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce with G. C. (Jake) Hudson, president, presiding. A number of details in connection with the staging of "Frolics of Fez" were discussed and all plans were perfected for staging of this elaborate minstrel and musical revue.

It was decided to make the top price for the show $1.65, war tax included. There will also be a large number of seats available for $1.10. The show will be presented at the high school auditorium Thursday and Friday nights of next week and is being directed by Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Nickerson. Rehearsals are in progress each night at the old Elks Club building and the cast will be composed of 150. It is also expected that Karem and Hella Temples will furnish some special acts for the show.

The sale of tickets is to be launched at once under the direction of Henry Walker and Roy Nussbaum. It was decided to put the sale of tickets in the hands of various organizations of the city paying them ten percent. Bike Simmons speaking for the Cubs Club stated the members of this organization would sell tickets on the basis of the above proposition. It is expected that other organizations will also take part in the ticket selling campaign.

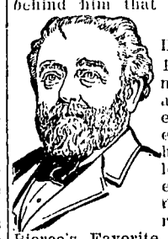

The following Shriners will solicit advertising for the attractive program which is to be printed: Jake Hudson, Jim Robinson, Roy Nussbaum, F. P. Wood, E. C. Cox, J. N. Garitty, Ed Dupuy, R. D. Fleming, J. B. Miller, Robt. Cooksey and others.

A new feature act for "Frolics of Fez" has also been booked it was announced at the Monday night meeting. At a great expense the Shrine Club has secured ten former members of the Royal Russian Ballet who will appear in costume and to special musical arrangement and will gracefully perform the most difficult steps known in the art of classic dancing. There will be solo dancing as well as ensemble numbers. The members of this rare conglomeration of dancing daises who will postively appear in person at each performance are Bike Simmons, D. C. Pinchback, Lacy Wills, Sam Daiches, E. C. Lee, Henry Walker, J. N. Garitty, R. L. Wheelock, N. C. Pinkston, H. B. Bomar and M. A. Spurgeon. This act alone will be well worth the price of admission.

The club adjourned to meet again next Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to attend this meeting.

COMMITTEE FAVORS SECURING OF JUNIOR COLLEGE FOR COUNTY

At a meeting of the educational committee that has been investigating the junior college idea held Tuesday morning, it was the concensus of opinion that the project had great merit as a county-wide proposition and Superintendent J. M. McClung of Navarro county will call a meeting of representative citizens of the county to be held at the Navarro county courthouse Saturday afternoon, May 1st.

For some two months the Chamber of Commerce educational committee, with H. D. Fillers as chairman, has been making a thorough survey of the junior college movement in Texas, and to some extent in the nation. Such of this information as has been compiled will be available for the county-wide conference, it was explained.

The committee has conducted an exhaustive investigation of junior colleges over the entire state of Texas and in other states and this data will be given to the county-wide movement.

Those present at the meeting Tuesday were Sydney Marks, W. Roy Christian, H. D. Fillers, J. M. McClung, F. N. Drane, S. M. Kerr, W. P. McCammon, A. A. Allison, J. T. Newsom.

English Author Dies.

London, April 15.—E. Harold Spender, 62, English journalist and well known as an author and lecturer died today, after an operation.

In Memoriam.

In loving memory of little Lavern Melton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zack Melton, Jr.

On February 24, 1926, God visited the happy home of Mr. and Mrs. Zack and Dessie Melton and gave to them a sweet little baby girl, and they gave her the name Lavern. Oh, how happy was that home, soon to be broken on earth. For God came back to that home on March 30, 1926 at 10:15 o'clock in the evening and the death angel came silently in and gathered up the tiny little spirit an dtook it back to God, who gave it.

Little Lavern was just one month and six days old, she departed form this life so early. She staid on earth so short a time, just long enough for us to love her then the death angel came and claimed her, she was budded on earth to bloom in Heaven. Little Lavern leaves to mourn her death a father, mother and little sister and a large circle of relatives and friends. It was so hard to give her up, it just seemed like it was more than mother and father could bear and it was so hard to see her suffer so much, but God's will must be done, not ours, weep not mother, father and loved ones, little Lavern is not dead, but just asleep in our dear Saviour's arms. All was done that loving hands and kind hearts could do, but God willed different for he had a vacant place in Heaven that he wanted Little Lavern to fill. We who love and mourn her know she has gone only a little while before and we look forward to meeting her again in a better land, where there are no more sad parting.

Funeral services were conducted by Brother Carraway of Blooming Grove and her little body was laid to rest in the Dresden cemetery beneath a flower covered mound to awaite the resurrection.

Written by her aunt.

Card of Thanks.

To our many friends:

We wish to take this method in publicly expressing our thanks to each of you who had opened your home and purse to us since we lost our house and furniture and clothes on February 26th.

You may think we are a long time in thanking you, but we just got our house built back and moved in, so we had to wait until we were at home before thanking you because we were still staying with our friends. Let us say here that friendship has been exemplified more to us than it ever has before. True enough we always valued our friends a worthy asset, but words cannot express our appreciation of the many things which have been given us. We don't see how we could have got back to housekeeping had it not been for our friends and we can't began to express our thanks to you. To those of you who have lost everything in the way of furniture and clothing you know how to sympathize with us. To those of your that have never had that misfortune you can't realize just how we felt when we saw everything burned to ashes in a few minutes. But there are some of the greatest things left us after all, and that is health and our good friends. We wish we could see each of you personally and thank you, but that is hardly possible. You will be remembered as long as we live.

Best wishes to each of you.
A. W. Ray and Wife and Children.

Over a period of EIGHT YEARS the Hicks Rubber Co., has consistently followed a policy of delivering the greatest tire values possible to customers. We no not sell or believe in unguaranteed tires. We have rigidly adhered to our obligations concerning guarantees. Without these methods of merchandising we could not have attained the dominant position among tire dealers that we have attained, namely: The Largest Sales Organization Dealing Exclusively in Automobile Tires in the World!

Dayton — Southern — Diamond

Lasting Value—Long Mileage—Low Cost

Lasting Value because these superb tires have the quality built into them. Only the finest materials are used in their manufacture and they are high quality to the last thread. The thousands of motorists who ride on these tires offer convincing proof of the long mileage and superior service that they give.

The price of these tires has been reduced by the Hicks Rubber Company until it is very little above that of ordinary tires. The added service and satisfaction makes them the most economical tires to ride on. Take advantage of these low prices.

CHICKEN CHATTER

By ELMA LAWSON

This weekly column is published by The Daily Sun and Semi-Weekly Light in co-operation with the Navarro County Poultry Association's campaign for "More and Better Poultry." Questions relating to poultry will be answered by competent authorities. Address all communications to Miss Lawson, Home Demonstration Agent, care Corsicana Chamber of Commerce.

It is nearly twenty-five years since the Rhode Island Experiment Station published the results of the most elaborate experiments with egg preservatives ever made. These experiments showed that sodium silicate, commonly called water glass, was a cheap and efficient article for this purpose, and one especially suited to use in the home. Since then water glass has become the popular egg preservative. There is much reason to think, however, that consumers benefit more by its use than producers. Certainly producers are not making the use of it which they might.

On January 1, 1926, there were in cold storage in the United States 550,000 more cases of eggs than the 5-year average for that date, which is commonly taken as representting normal requirements. This excess had the effect of putting prices of eggs down earlier and lower than if it had not existed. Comparison with the 5-year average is very rough comparison, for population and demand are steadily increasing. The real excess over probable requirements was not over two-thirds what it appeared to be by this comparison. However, since there are, in round figures, 5,000,000 farms keeping poultry for convenience we will take the excess of eggs this year at 500,000 cases.

If each farm had marketed only three dozen less eggs than it did last year the surplus which depressed prices would not have existed.

There is not a farm producing eggs in this country that could not easily use thre dozen more eggs at home than it did. But to do the job right, the added farm consumption must be adjusted so that it will do producers the most good. It must reduce the supply on the market when eggs are lowest—at which time the average farm family is pretty well fed up with eggs. Also, when doing a job of this kind, it is always wise to do it thoroughly and well—to "make assurance doubly sure." Further, in this case doing the job well is a matter of putting up enough eggs to be worth the (little) trouble.

A quart of water glass, costing 30 to 35 cents usually, mixed with nine quarts of water that has been boiled and cooled, is sufficient to preserve 15 dozen eggs, which with the required amount of preservative can be contained in a 5 gallon crock or jar.

Five million 5 gallon crocks will contain 2,500,000 cases of eggs. If only one farm in five puts down a 5 gallon crock of eggs, the difference in the total market receipts will have a marked effect on egg prices.

The average farm family ought to have two 5 gallon crocks of water glass each year—beginning to put the eggs in when flush production begins, and putting in say two dozen a week—thus holding back at a uniform rate all hrough the flush season.

If all "farm surplus" problems were as simple as this, politicians would have fewer sleepless nights, and professional agitators would waste their appeals on farmers.

In this case, the ifs are small. No organization is needed. All that is necessary is for each farmer to wake to a realization of the fact tthat it takes only a little of a product held back to raise the price of the whole.

No Excuse for No Winter Eggs.

A farmer with a flock of hens has no more excuse for being without eggs inwinter than a dairyman would have for being without milk. The principles of production are the same—good blood, good housing and plenty of a balanced ration.

Last spring we bought eggs of the best laying strain of Barred Rocks we could get and set them in the incubator so that the first setting came off the first day of March and the second hatched on the twenty-fifth. The cockerels were sold as soon as possible and the pullets were kept on a good growing ration.

October 15 these pullets were culled and put in an open front house with plenty of scratching room and litter to scratch in. They were fed germinated oats at 10 a. m., a moist mash at noon and a grain mixture at 4 p. m. Dry mash, grit, shell and water were before them at all times and twice a week they were fed some wheat in the sheaf to help renew the litter and stimulate scratching. They were fed some rape for green feed but alfalfa leaves were also mixed in the dry mash. The mash also contained meat meal, fish meal and several other ingredients.

As we wanted to select the best winter layers for breeders, we installed trap nests in the house November 1. The week before Thanksgiving eggs were selling on our market at 75c to $1 a dozen and the trap nest showed that 58 of our 75 pullets were laying. All that were not laying by December 20 were culled out as boarders regardless of their beauty. I am sure we coud get more eggs by using lights to lengthen the hens' working day but as we wanted to use these pullets as breeders in the spring I did not care to force them to the limit. Nevertheless we supplied our neighbors with eggs to do their holiday cooking and we did not have to go to the bank in order to see Santa Claus.

REGULATIONS CALL DIPPING ALL CATTLE IMPORTED MEXICO

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, April 15.—Strict regulations have been placed on ships from foreign ports by the state live stock sanitary commission and Governor Ferguson, effective April 10, and on cattle importations from Mexico to prevent spread of the hoof and mouth disease and eradicate cattle scabies.

Proclamations were made public today, one demanding that all cattle imported from Mexico be dipped immediately upon arrival in Texas, being effective April 12.

The proclamations require that all shipments touching various foreign ports must be fumigated before entering Texas ports and that no Brahaman cattle can be imported into Texas unless after several days spent in quarantine and disinfection and inspection by an inspector of the live stock sanitary commission.

Shipments without livestock, but having, hay, straw, hides and animal by-products, must be disinfected before making port in Texas, and no garbage can be disposed of within three miles of the coast, the proclamation rules.

The proclamation states that the hoof and mouth disease of cattle came from foreign countries via ship into Texas and prevention of recurrence of the ravages of the disease is sought through the promulgation of the regulations.

It is stated that because Mexico is making no effort to eradicate the cattle scabbies, that Texas is in constant danger and rules that all cattle shipped into Texas from Mexico must be free from scabbies. The first dipping in lime and sulphate, must take place as the cattle are imported from Mexico and the second within 10 to 14 days, the proclamation states.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MILDRED MAN WERE HELD TUESDAY

Funeral services for R. N. Wilson, aged 58 years, who died at an early hour Tuesday morning at his home near Mildred, were held at the family residence Tuesday afternoon, with interment in Cryer Creek cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. W. T. Bratton, pastor of the Hope Baptist church, Corsicana.

The deceased was born in Georgia.

The following children survive him: Mrs. Roy Gray, Mildred; Guy, E. L., George and Elton Wilson, Mildred; Miss Lucile Wilson, Mildred; Mrs. Clara Brown, El Dorado, Ark.; his wife, mother, two brothers and one sister.

Following were pallbearers: A. D. Thomas, Dave Bryant, Robert Bennifield, J. D. Nelson, M. A. Watters, Elmer Watters.

CHAMBER COMMERCE SEEKING QUARTERS ON GROUND FLOOR

Believing that a downstairs location will make it easier to serve the public to which the organization is dedicated, directors of the Chamber of Commerce authorized the executive committee to arrange for new quarters, at a meeting Thursday morning.

The advantages of a downstairs home over an upstairs location have been considered by officers of the Chamber for some time in connection with plans for expanding the service of the organization. For some months the conference space in the present quarters has intruded on the available room for conferences. Unanimous action was taken on the proposal.

Total pledges in the recent membership campaign amounted to $9,624.50, W. H. Hastings, director of the campaign, reported to the board. Total expenses of the membership effort cost $90, which included printing, luncheon, etc.

On motion of Judge Lee Jester the board gave Mr. Hastings an enthusiastic vote of thanks for the public service he had rendered. President Sydney Marks and others commended Mr. Hastings on the economy in handling the campaign, which is in line with the administration's policy of "making a dollar go a lot of service."

Officers and directors will attend the opening of the State National Bank Building in a body on next Wednesday and offer their congratulations.

Present at this first meeting of the new board were President Marks, L. C. Coulson, J. L. Halbert, Mayor J. S. Murchison, Judge Jester, W. H. Hastings, Joe Fortson, W. C. Stroube, R. L. Hamilton, W. P. McCammon and Roy Christian, secretary-manager.

Stop That Backache!

Many Corsicana Folks Have Found the Way.

Is a dull, nerve-racking backache wearing you out? Do you feel older and slower than you should? Are you tired, weak and nervous; find it impossible to be happy, or enjoy the good times around you? Then there's something wrong and likely it's your kidneys. Why not get at the cause? Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Your neighbors recommend Doan's. Read what this Corsicana resident says:

E. G. Sheppard, prop. grocery, 423 N. Tenth St., says: "I was troubled with backache. The kidney secretions passed frequently and were sometimes scanty. I felt tired and sleepy and lacked ambition. Doan's Pills removed every sign of the trouble."

Mr. Sheppard gave the above statement April 1, 1919, and on May 22, 1924, he said: "It is seldom I need Doan's now, as they have practically cured me."

Hicks Rubber Co. Acquires Interest Here

In line with their progressive spirit, it is just learned that the Hicks Rubber Company has taken over the old location and the entire interests of the Glenn Rubber Co. of Corsicana. Hicks Stores throughout Texas deal exclusively in automobile tires and tubes, and are reputed to be the largest selling organization dealing exclusively in automobile tires in the world. With such wide-flung selling units, this company enjoys an enormous buying power. They handle several brands of nationally advertised tires. With the establishing of one of their regular stores in Corsicana, this company now operates about twenty-six stores and associated stores in Texas. In Waco, San Antonio, Abilene and Amarillo wholesale distributing centers are maintained, in addition to their large retail stores there.

The Corsicana store will be in charge of H. B. McDonald and W. R. Echols. Mr. McDonald owns and operates the Pioneer News Company, and is well known here. Mr. Echols is widely known here, having been connected with the Humble Oil & Refining Co., his former home being in Breckenridge.

New York Cotton Easier

By Associated Press.

New York, April 15.—The cotton market was easier in today's early trading. Unfavorable features of the weather map were offset by prospects for fair and warmer in the southwest and relatively easy Liverpool cables.

The opening was steady at an advance of one point to a decline of three points but May soon sold off from 18.98 to 18.91, while October declined from 17.46 to 17.42, active months showing net losses of about four to five points at the end of the first hour.

Trading was quiet later in the morning and prices held steady after the early decline to 18.86 for May and 17.42 for October. As anticipated, the detailed weather reports showed unseasonably temperatures all over the belt but the effect was offset by the forecast for warmer conditions in the southwest and the market was within 2 or 3 points of the lowest at midday.

Slight Losses New Orleans

By Associated Press.

New Orleans, April 15.—The cotton market opened easier owing to disappointing Liverpool cables and prospects for better weather. First trades showed losses of four to seven points and prices eased off a point or two additional after the call, May trading at 18.17, July at 17.74, and October at 16.77 or four to eight points below yesterday's close. As soon as the early selling had run its course the market became steadier and prices rallied one to four points from the early lows.

The market ruled steady all morning supported by predictions of frost in the eastern belt and a better spot demand. May traded up to 18.20 and October to 16.82 or 2 to 3 points above the earlier highs.

Later prices eased off on realizing on the strength of fair weather in the western belt and at the lowest levels reached prices were 6 to 8 points under yesterday's close. At noon the market was steady and a shade above the lows.

The market was fairly steady but quiet during the afternoon particularly on new crop months which continued within the earlier range trading around 16.79 for October and 16.78 for December. Old crop months made new lows at 18.12 for May and 17.71 for July.

Liverpool Market.

By Associated Press.

Liverpool, April 15.—Cotton spot moderate business; price steady. American strictly good middling 11.11; good middling 10.81; strictly middling 10.56; middling 10.16; strictly low middling 9.46; low middling 8.51; strictly good ordinary 7.56; good ordinary 6.81. Sales 7,000 bales. 3,200 American. Receipts 1,000 bales, American 500.

Stocks Lose Ground.

By Associated Press.

New York, April 15.—Selling pressure was renewed at the opening of the day's stock market and prices lost ground. Consolidated Cigar dropped 1 3-4 to 45 1-4, a new low for the year; Coco Cola yielded 1 1-4 and Mack Trucks 1. Hudson opened a point higher on short covering. Trading was in fairly heavy volume.

The announcement of plans to restrict sugar production in Cuba ten per cent. brought buying support into the sugar shares, which were acutely weak yesterday. South Porto Rican sugar rallied 3 points before the end of the first half hour and Punta Alegre 2. Further weakness developed in some of the motors with the selling attributed in some quarters to a statement in the Federal Reserve bulletin that retail sales of cars had not kept pace with manufacturers shipments to dealers. Jordan and Pierce Arrow preferred each fell back about a point. The Union Tank Car, Allied Chemical, National Biscuit and Texas Gulf Sulphur also fell back a point or two. Some support came into the market after the first outbreak of selling, Postum Cereal and Texas and Pacific moving up a point above yesterday's closing quotations. Foreign exchanges opened heavy, French francs breaking nearly five points to a new record low level for all time at 3.37 1-2 cents. Belgian francs fell six points to 3.71 cents. Demand held steady around 4.85 9-16.

Wheat Goes High Level.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, April 15.—Owing largely to a sharp advance in Liverpool quotations, all deliveries of wheat here advanced today to the highest level yet on the present movement. Chicago opening prices, 3-4 to 2 1-2 cents higher, May (new) 165 1-2 to 166 1-2 and July 139 3-4 to 140, were followed by something of a reaction, but then by fresh up turns.

The corn rose with wheat. Opening 1-8 to 5-8 cents up, May 73 1-4 to 73 3-8, the market eased a little and then scored decided gains all around.

Better weather for seeding held the oats market down. Prices started unchanged to quarter cent higher, May 42 to 41 1-8, and held near to the initial limit.

Provisions were a little easier, notwithstanding an up turn in hog values.

Slowness in Cattle Trade.

By Associated Press.

Hugh Embury McAfee.

Hugh Embury McAfee was born July 8th, 1859, in Mississippi. He came to Texas at the age of sixteen and has made his home at Emmett since that time. He was converted at the age of sixteen and afterwards joined the M. E. Church, South, of which he has been a consistent member since that time.

He was married to Elizabeth Rice Groves, May 21, 1882, and to this union were born thirteen children, eleven of whom survive and were present at the funeral. He was true to his maker and redeemer till his death which occurred April 6, 1926.

The deceased was a Christian who practiced his religion. He set the right example always before his children. He was pure in his life, honest in his convictions, and dealings with his fellow men, righteous in his ways. There was nothing he enjoyed more than reading the Bible and discussing its teaching with his children and his friends.

He remarked before his death that he had no enmity or ill will against any one, was concerned about the welfare of others, and a good friend to all. He loved his children dearly and was anxiously concerned about each one. His nature was to let adversity bear on his mind, but he struggled against these the last few months. He remarked on several different times that he did not want to live to be so old as to be dependent or a burden to some one else. He could never be content to be idle and as he was growing more feeble day by day he expressed a desire to leave the world and its troubles. The children tried in every way to help and relieve him in every possible way.

He was faithful in all his duties, a good Christian and a sweet singer. He praised his redeemer in a life of song. A writer of music, and two of his own compositions, "Whiter Than Snow," and "Will You Miss Me When I'm Gone," were sung at his funeral.

The children are comforted by his upright life and high ideals as he set before them. A rich legacy which no doubt each will pattern after. They know better than any one, of the noble life he lived and the influence of his life will live on in the lives of his children. They all loved and esteemed him and the memory of him will be a blessing to each as long as they shall live. We know where to find him. It is comforting to know that at last he is at rest. That eternal, blessed happiness is his. That when we shall see him again he will be the same kind, loving father, but contented to dwell with Jesus and his loved ones forever more.

But oh, how we miss him. Miss his wise counsel and good advice in everything, and wish he could have been content to have remained with us a while longer.

Rev. W. T. Boulware of Dawson, former pastor conducted the funeral service and interment was made in Emmett cemetery. His wife and the following children survive him: I. D. McAfee, Corsicana; Mrs. Arthur Fagala, Blooming Grove; Mrs. Fred Mitchell, Georgetown; Mrs. R. V. Smith, Corsicana; Mrs. J. S. Johnson, Graham; Miss Ollie McAfee, Frost; T. D. McAfee, Hillsboro; H. I. McAfee, Graham; E. T. McAfee, Emmett; R. E. McAfee, Emmett; R. W. McAfee, Emmett. A number of grandchildren and one great grandchild, four brothers survive, H. H. McAfee, Clarksville, Ark.; A. C. McAfee, Corsicana; H. W. McAfee, Corsicana; M. W. McAfee, Dallas, and H. P. McAfee, Denison.

DELINQUENCY WAS SUBJECT STRESSED CLEBURNE WOMAN

MRS. FLORENCE FLOORE ADDRESSED CLUB WOMEN HERE TUESDAY

The following speech on problems of delinquency was made Tuesday afternoon before the convention of Federated Clubs of Texas' third district at the First Baptist church Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Florence C. Floore, Cleburne, past president, Texas Federation of Womens Clubs, state chairman and treasurer of the general federation.

Mrs. Floore was a member of a survey committee dealing with penal institutions in Texas. A complete report of the survey was made during the prison investigation in 1923, and recommendations have been made whereby it is proposed to amend the state constitution to permit of locating the penal institutions of the state centrally. The proposed amendment will be voted on at the November general elections this fall.

Mrs. Floore said in part as follows:

"We, the members of Texas Federation of Womens Clubs, are united, organized, in order that we may promote conditions for the betterment of life; especially that life in Texas may become fuller, deeper, happier for all who live here.

"During the twenty-eight years of our existence we have helped to better many conditions in Texas. We have helped to make cleaner, healthier, more beautiful towns and cities; to secure parks and playgrounds, better highways; to conserve our forests; to secure laws; to raise our standards of education; to promote, all over the state, movements looking toward the betterment of life.

"Years ago we became interested in problems of delinquency. Visiting jails, the trying to better sanitation and to secure cleanliness in the jails, the taking of literature to inmates, have been reported at almost all our conventions. We have been interested in our boys school at Gatesville, and many of us here helped to raise and give the money that made possible our Girls Training School in Gainesville. Years ago, to, we became interested in Texas prison problem. Since 1911 there have been twelve investigations made by our Texas Legislature. We, with other good citizens of Texas, were shocked at conditions disclosed by these investigations. We passed resolutions favoring change in conditions and in our work for other worth while measures, like the other good citizens of Texas, forgot this blot on our state. Finally, several years ago, we, with the Congress of Mothers, Parent-Teacher Association, and League of Women Voters cooperating, realized that if this prison problem were ever to be solved we must first know the conditions there; and we knew that here was but one way to know conditions, and that by making a scientific survey. We and these other women's organizations realized that so great an undertaking as a scientific survey should be the especial responsibility of some particular group of citizens. To that end, representatives of these three women's organizations, with other prominent women and a number of fine and interested men in the state organized January, 1923, the Texas Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor.

During the Legislative session of that year, 1923, this committee secured legislative authority to conduct a complete and thoroughly scientific survey of the Texas Prison System. Leading experts of state and national reputation were obtained, and for many months conditions were studied on the disconnected chain of 14 prison farms where the impound over 3500 men and women.

"This group of experts found conditions of almost unbelievable backwardness in the treatment of prisoners; conditions that have been flaringly placed before the people of Texas again only within the last year by the report of the Legislative Investigating Committee of the House and Senate. An account of some of the finding of this investigation appeared in last November and December issues of Hollands Magazine in articles entitled The Octopus.

"The most important recommendation of the Texas Prison Survey as well as of the majority of Legislative Prison Investigating Committees is that the present chain of prison farms and the penitentiary at Huntsville be sold and used for other purposes, and that the Texas Prison system must be situated near the center of the population of the state.

"A bill providing for the reorganization and the relocation of the entire prison system of the state was passed by the last Legislature, 1925, but was vetoed by the governor. It will now be necessary to resubmit a similar bill to our next Legislature.

"Before the convening of the Constitution of 1927 the important work for us to do is the carrying of the Constitutional Amendment abolishing the present form of prison management. This Amendment is to be voted on in the general election of next November (1926). A resolution providing for this Amendment passed both houses of the last Legislature. For definite information on the provisions of this Amendment read the leaflets that have been distributed.

"We club women must feel responsible for informing the citizens of our communities on this measure so that it will receive a substantial majority in the election this fall, November, 1926.

After the Amendment has been carried at the general election in November, our legislative program for the Legislature convening in January 1927 will be:

"First—A bill providing for a non-salaried Board of Prison Commissioners with a one-man-manager plan, such as the educational institutions of our state have in their Board of Regents and Presidents.

"Second—A bill providing for the reorganization and the relocation of the entire prison system to some central part of the state.

"Committees are being formed in every county to carry on educational work in the towns and rural districts.

"Write your name on one of the blanks if you can help in this work.

"Money needlessly used in our Texas prisons could and should be used in the education of Texas children. A large number of young men in our prisons could and should be made into worthwhile citizens. Treatment of human beings, described in The Octopus articles as worse than the Spanish Inquisition, could and should be stopped.

"In helping to do these, shall we not be carrying out the object of our Texas Federation—the promotion of higher social, moral, philanthropic conditions?"

RATES ON BRICKS AND CLAY PRODUCTS HELD UNREASONABLE

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 15.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has found to be unreasonable interstate rates on bricks and other clay products from points in Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Kansas to destinations in those states and in Louisiana and to Memphis, Tenn. Rates from Texas, Arkansas and Oklahoma to points in Southern Missouri also were found unjustified.

It also found to be unjustly discriminatory intrastate rates on the same commodities, except common brick, in Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Kansas and Southern Missouri.

The Commission ordered estimate of a new scale of interstate rates for single line hauls ranging from 4.5 cents a hundred pounds for distances up to ten miles to 28.5 cents for 1,000 miles. It left to the state commissions the fixing of intrastate rates based on the interstate scale which the Commission fixed.

BASEBALL

King baseball regains his throne today to reign for another eight months in renewed splendor. Of all monarchs he alone as the years public favor. For, Americans the year comprises five seasons—baseroll by loses none of his traditional ball, spring, summer, fall and winter—but the greatest of these is the season of football. What other season of the year is looked forward to with as much expectation and yearning as that of the Great American Game?

Not all of the one hundred and fifteen millions of men, women and children in the United States are all-year-round baseball enthusiasts, but is there one who does not realize the triumphant coming of the three great days of the baseball calendar, which are the opening day of the season and the days of the first and last days of the world series? Spring and fall mean little to the baseball fan except that they herald the coming of the first game of the season and of the world series, respectively.

There have been some, albeit few, who have depreciated the greatest sport of the Americans. Have they not overlooked the advantages it provides for millions of humans to get out-of-doors for a part of least one hot afternoon a week, to thrust themselves into an all diverting amusement, to get together as a great community and with one thought? Have the opponents of baseball overlooked the verity that loyalty and patriotism are general, that loyalty to the home team is made of the same cloth as loyalty to one's town and country.

It is as natural for peoples to have their national pastime as to have their religions, political beliefs, and other national characteristics. Baseball is a distinctive characteristic of the American people.

BRAKES BETTER THAN HORNS

A current joke represents an automobile speeder who had run into a skyscraper building saying with his dying breath, "I blew my horn."

Having chuckled over the whimsy, consider it in the light of daily observations. What is the function of the automobile horn? What does the average driver understand its functions to be? Up to a certain point probably all persons would agree on the answers. The horn is intended to give warning of the approach of a car. It is to attract attention of those in the path of oncoming vehicle and cause them to look to their safety.

But it is not a command to them to get out of the way, though that is what many drivers regard it, if their actions are fair indications of their thought. If they get into trouble through insistence on going forward when they should have stopped they strive to exculpate themselves by protesting "I blew my horn."

The driver who does not respect the equal rights of others with himself to use of the highways is not fit to have a liscense to operate a motor vehicle. Sounding the horn when use of the brake is called for should be grounds for forfeiture of liscense.

APING KAISER BILL

The journalistic organ of the fascisti defines the Italian policy in the Tyrolean area won by Italy in the war as one of imposition by force of the national culture of one people upon another people. The polic; implies that the dependent people have little in common with the mother country.

This official presentation of Fascist policy causes one to feel as though he had before him the outpouring of some too nationally-complacent professional expositor of Prussian pre-war political philosophy.

Can it be possible that Mussolini has forgotten so soon the fate of the "kultur" of the erstwhile imperial Germany? Germany also had visions of imposing her national culture upon the rest of the world but saw that culture of which she was so proud, crumble before the cultural institutions of those peoples upon whom she would have forced her own.

The Tyroleans are not Italians, either by virtue of ancestry or by language and customs. For every Tyrolean Chirstmas tree the fascisti destroy, a Tyrolean revolutionary will rise up to question Italian sovereignity

THE COST OF A BAD ROAD.

It has long been known that bad and impassable roads cost the people of a community more than do a system of good roads.

This fact is indeed brought home to the citizens of Corsicana and Navarro county with the announcement that the Odd Fellows Old Folks Home which has been located on the outskirts of this city for many years will in the near future be moved to Ennis.

The main reasons given for this action are the unsatisfactory condition of the road leading to the home in bad weather and the lack of transportation facilities to the home.

It is very unfortunate that an establishment representing the outlay of money that the Home does should have to be changed to another location when the conditions directly causing the move could have been so easily remedied.

There has been several moves on foot at various times calling for the paving of this road but all seemed to die a natural death from the lack of interest or lack of cooperation.

There is also considerable talk of moving the Odd Fellows Orphan Home. In fact it is understood that one of the larger cities have made a very attractive proposition to the officials of the Odd Fellows and that this proposition is being very seriously considered.

We wonder if the people of Corsicana and Navarro county are going to sit serenely by and let other cities take one of our great institutions away from us when by the expenditure of a few thousand dollars and by showing a spirit of co-operation it can be retained.

With the State Home and the Odd Fellows Home both located on this road there should be no delay whereby the city and county officials could reach some agreement whereby this greatly needed hard surfaced highway could be constructed in the near future.

Immediate action is needed.

AGE TEST—DO YOU REMEMBER

The clothing merchant who used to throw in an extra pair of pants?

The young man who used to learn the business from the bottom up?

The man who used to demonstrate suspenders in drug store windows?

The corn doctor who used to wear a horsehair watch chain?

The old fashioned gent who used to applaud the trained seal act?

The guys who said automobiles would never be a success?

The professor who was going to the moon in a rocket?

The young lady who thought it was immoral to use slang?

The guy who used to wear heavy woolen underwear in winter?

The bird who chirped "No, thanks. I'm on the wagon?"

The old fashioned husband who always had a savings account at the bank?

The woman who used to make one set of furs last a lifetime?

LARGEST MARCH CONSTRUCTION.

Although construction operations were a little slow in getting under way in the first half of the month, March had the largest volume of construction contracts for any March on record, according to F. W. Dodge Corporation. Last month also had a larger volume of contracts than any previous month except August of last year. Last month's total of building and engineering contracts in the 37 States east of the Rocky Mountains was $597,879,300. The increase over February was 53 per cent; over March of last year 22 per cent.

Included in the month's record were the following important items: $262,643,500, or 44 per cent, of all construction, for residential buildings; $108,812,400, or 18 per cent, for commercial buildings; $100,603,300, or 17 per cent, for public works and utilities; $48,677,200, or 8 per cent, for industrial buildings; and $29,079,700, or 5 per cent, for educational buildings.

Total construction commitments made during the first quarter of 1926 have amounted to $1,444,937,700 for March of last year and 30 per cent over the first quarter of last year. In viewing this large increase it should be recalled that last year's boom had not really started in the first quarter, and that the first quarter of last year had only a slight increase over the corresponding period of 1924.

Over a billion dollars in contemplated construction was reported last month, the largest amount for any month on record. The exact figure was $1,029,450,500, being 20 per cent over the amount reported in February and 30 per cent over the amount reported in March of last year.

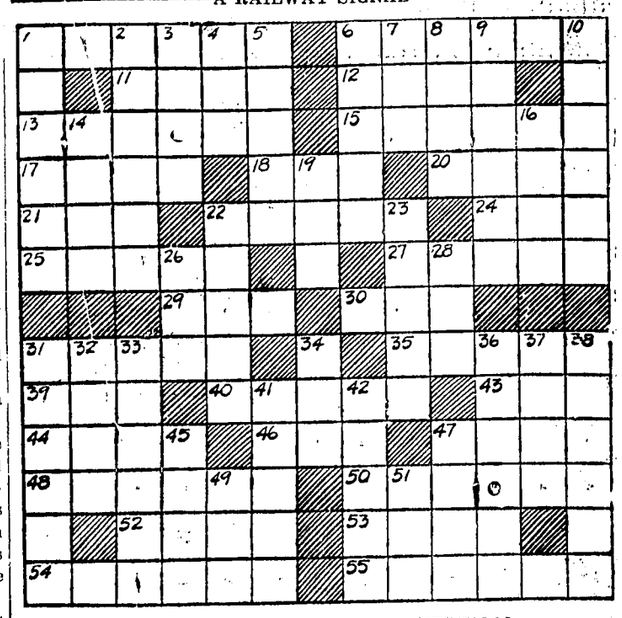

Texas had $21,079,000 in contracts for new building and engineering work last month. This was more than double the amount for March of last year and 30 pes cent over February of this year. The March record included: $10,218,600, or 48 per cent of all construction, for residential buildings; $4,699,000, or 22 per cent, for commercial buildings; $3,320,300, or 16 per cent, for public works and utilities; and $901,300 or 4 per cent, for industrial buildings.

Construction started in Texas during the past quarter has amounted to $51,041,600, being an increase of nearly 47 per cent over the first quarter of 1925.

Contemplated construction projects were reported for Texas in March to the amount of $43,639,700, being considerably more than double the amount reported in March of last year and 76 per cent more than in February of this year.

PERFECTING PLANS FOR ORGANIZATION OF FORTY AND EIGHT

Plans were perfected for the organization of a Voiture of the Forty and Eight as an adjunct to the local Legion Post at the regular business session of the Johnson-Wiggins Post No. 22 Tuesday night

An organizing committee composed of W. H. Milam, Jr., chairman; LeGrande J. Woods, J. A. Clark and E. E. English was appointed by Post Commander O. M. Boyntoon, who will get the necessary members to sign up in order that a charter may be obtained. There were twelve charter members signed up before the meeting adjourned. It requires at least fifteen charter members.

The local post now has a total of 165 paid up members for the present year, and other members are being signed up almost daily.

Post Commander O. M. Boynton and Adjutant L. V. Majors presided. Chaplain J. B. Ingle of Richland, made a speech in behalf of the organization of the new Voiture of Forty and Eight. The Forty and Eight is composed of active Legion members, and is the fun-making adjunct connected with the regular post of Legionnaires.

WOMAN'S NATIONAL COMMITTEE FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT WORK

RETURN TO SESSIONS AFTER HAVING BEEN HEARD BY SENATE COMMITTEE

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 13.—A broadside against both violators and critics of the prohibition law was delivered today by Attorney General Sargent. Speaking before the Women's National Committee for law enforcement, he declared purchasers of liquor morally guilty of bribery, warned government prosecutors not to criticize the law, appealed to the women of the country to ostracize those who serve liquor in the home, and promised those who foster violation of the statutes that "the hand of punishment shall fall as often and as heavily as those now charged with the duties of administering the law can cause it to fall."

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 13.—Having in no uncertain terms informed the Senate prohibition committee of their uncompromising opposition to the modification of the Volstead act, the Woman's National Committee for Law Enforcement today issued a charge to the American people to "uphold the action" and listened to the advice of speakers who asked them to pound at the job of building up sentiment for law observance.

Principal among the speakers was Mrs. Mabel Walker Willbrand, who is in charge of the Department of Justice liquor prosecution forces. She said "watchful units of women" can keep public officials delivering their best efforts, even though such officials at times be the kind that "unwatched, slight the task at hand."

Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in a statement read to the conference, asked "why not be honest with ourselves and admit that our children will not be the high minded, fine people that we want and expect them to be unless we—their parents—set them an example of being just and law abiding citizens."

The political assets and liabilities committee of the conference, led by Mrs. William Harrison Cole of the Illinois federation of womens clubs, brought in the challenge for enforcement. It was contained in a report which listed the assets and liabilities of the nation as the relate to observance.

Among the assets were good citizens, intelligent voters, and citizens of character willing to stand for office.

Liabilities were listed as corrupt politicians; the instinct to head party sins; indifferent citizens; the system of political patronage; political machines; timidity or cowardice in fighting well known evils; and yielding to "enemy propaganda."

"We have a full knowledge that many of the vital laws of this country are being flagrantly violated," said an appended resolution. Other liabilities are becoming larger than our assets which will end in bankruptcy. If the session of today is not manifesting the interest of sustaining the rights and privileges of American citizens, and that "not names on ballots, but cardinal principles of candidates above reproach must be our standard at the primaries and elections."

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

From Tuesday's Daily:

District Court.

The case styled the State of Texas vs. Humble Oil & Refining Company, taxes, went on trial in the district court Tuesday. The litigation has been brought for taxes on the properties of the defendant company for the year 1923. The litigation involves a sum alleged to be due Navarro county in the sum of $106,600.14.

After the jury had been selected, the other jurors for the week were dismissed.

GROWING DEMAND FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL LITERATURE NOTED

By Associated Press.

Nashville, Tenn., April 14.—A growing tendency among public schools to substitute religious education for general education during certain school hours has resulted in an increased demand for Sunday school literature. The annual report of Dr. E. B. Chappell, Sunday school editor, before the Sunday School board of the Southern Methodist church here today, reveals this as one of the outstanding features of present day religious education.

Last year this department circulated 1,859,000 copies of Sunday school papers and lesson texts.

Dr. Chappell, as editor, issues more than a dozen group and graded lesson papers in addition to monthly and quarterly magazines of Sunday school method and three weekly papers for children and young people. He has been at the head of this department for 20 years and has held many interdenominational positions, among them being president of the International Sunday School Lesson committee. He is also a member of the executive committee of the International Journal of Religious Education.

The report reviewed the work during the quadrennium of 1922-1926.

The increase in the circulation of Sunday school papers and periodicals during the quadrennium was reported as 96,200. The largest gain for a single publication, according to Dr. Chappell's report, was shown in the Adult Student, which has a circulation at present of approximately 275,000, which he said was the largest of an periodical of its kind in the United States.

Sales for Sunday school periodicals during the quadrennium totaled 53,946,577. Dr. Chappell reported, an increase of 82,926 during the past three years. Sales of publications used in the elective and training courses are not included in this amount.

Dr. Chappell noted the increasing demand for training in religious education on week days as well as Sundays, and reported that arrangements had been made in many towns, cities and rural communities to relieve the children of school work during certain hours that they might obtain religious instruction in their respective churches. To meet the demands resulting from this work, preparations are under way, he said for the arrangement of special lesson material to be used in week day classes.

FATHER CORSICANA PEOPLE DIED HOME IN DALLAS TODAY

A telephone message was received here today telling of the death of J. H. Ferrell, age 82, of Dallas, father of G. H. Ferrell and Mrs. Charles Bee, Sr., of Corsicana.

Mr. Ferrell died Tuesday and the funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon from the home, 2520 Dawson street, Dallas.

G. H. Ferrell has gone to Dallas and will remain until after the funeral. Mrs. Bee will be unable to attend the funeral on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Harrison and Mrs. G. H. Ferrell will go to Dallas tomorrow to attend the funeral.

"OH, why can't I have a skin like other girls? Why do I have to have these ugly pimples, blotches and blackheads?

"If I could only find something that would clear up my skin and give me back my soft, rosy complexion, I know I would be the happies girl in the world! What can I do?"

Is that you talking? If it is, you don't have to worry a minute! Just build up the rich, red blood in your body. Then your skin will be as clear and soft as anybody's.

That's what S. S. S. has been doing for generations—helping Nature build rich, red blood! You can build red-blood-cells so fast that the impurities that cause breaking out on the skin hardly get into the system before the pure blood annihilates them—kills them right out—stops them from breaking out through the skin.

And then this rich, red, pure blood feeds and nourishes the tissues of the skin and keeps it looking healthy.

That's all there is to it. Healthy, vigorous red blood such as S. S. S. helps Nature build, makes you healthy all over. It beautifies your skin — drives away pimples, blackheads, blotches, rash, boils and eczema—gives you back your appetite—builds firm, plump flesh and fills you full of new life and energy.

All drug stores sell S. S. S. Get the larger bottle. It's more economical.

JESSE H. JONES OF HOUSTON TO DIRECT TEXAS CENTENNIAL

MEETING OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS HELD IN BAYOU CITY WEDNESDAY

Special to the Sun.

Houston, April 14.—Jesse H. Jones, capitalist, of this city, has accepted the post of director general of the Texas Centennial. The announcement was made following a meeting of the board of directors Wednesday.

The time and place of holding the centennial have not yet been announced, however all details and plans will be rapidly worked out and a complete organization will be formed without delay.

The idea of the Texas Centennial originated in Corsicana at the meeting of the Tenth District of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World in an address delivered by Theo. H. Price, editor of Commerce and Finance, New York.

The meeting in Houston today was largely attended and every section of the State was represented. Lowry Martin of the Corsicana Daily Sun, a member of the board, was among those present.

KERENS BAPTISTS TO HONOR MEN WHO WORKED FOR CHURCH

WAYNE HOWELL OF CORSICANA TO BE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER FRIDAY NIGHT

Special to the Sun

Kerens, Texas, April 14.—Mr. Wayne Howell attorney of Corsicana, will be the chief speaker at a banquet given by the Baptists of Kerens in honor of the Building Committee which guided the building of the Kerens Baptist church, on Friday night, April 16, in the basement of the church.

A special program in addition to the speech by Mr. Howell has been arranged. The church orchestra will furnish music for the occasion. It is planned for the married church members having children to sit at one table alone, leaving their children in the care of the married couples with no children at another table.

J. B. Reese was chairman of the committee. J. B. Smith, secretary, and J. M. Speed, W. L. Bain, P. H. Brister and E. M. Forehand were the other members of the committee. The church has officially accepted the work and report of this committee.

JOHN H. LANG MET ACCIDENTAL DEATH IN HOUSTON TODAY

Mrs. Hugh R. Stewart was called to Houston Saturday on account of the death of her brother, John H. Lang, who was overcome with gas while adjusting a gas range at his home, 308 Moss street. He was rushed to a hospital, but died before arrival there.

Mr. Lang was reared in Corsicana, but has been residing in Houston for more than twenty years, where for a number of years he was in the employ of the H. & T. C. R. R. shops as a car builder, however, for the past few years he has held a responsible position with the city health department.

He is survived by his wife and one grown daughter, Miss Barbara Lang and the following brothers and sisters: Robt. C. Lang, Mrs. John Walling, Mrs. Alvin Bendall all of Houston; Mrs. Bert Brown of Dallas and Mrs. Hugh Stewart of this city.

FARMERS TAKING INTEREST IN FEED RAISING CONTEST

BEGINNING TO REALIZE THE IMPORTANCE OF GROWING OWN FEEDSTUFFS

Indications of the strong interest in the effort to get more feed planted in Navarro county are seen daily in the personal comments and letters which reach the Chamber of Commerce.

In spite of unfavorable weather for early corn planting, there are assurances that Navarro county farmers see the wisdom of making amends for the feed failure last year and the growing tendency away from feed during the past five years.

"Stacking up cotton without plenty of feed is building a crop on a foundation of sand," declared one thoughtful farmer in discussing the movement to emphasize the need of more corn and grain sorghums.

Entry blanks in the $1000 feed contest are now available at all the banks throughout the county and at the newspaper offices in each of the towns. Bankers of Navarro county who have the unusual opportunity of watching the financial side of farming, are lending their co-operation.

"Feed planting is just as important in one part of the county a another and the needs of the situation are so great that we hope every merchant, banker and newspaper editor of the coounty will join with the farmers in pushing this campaign," said Henry Gentry, county agent.

Entry blanks when filled should be mailed to the Agricultural Committee, Chamber of Commerce Corsicana.

GOV. FERGUSON NOT CALL LEGISLATURE IN SPECIAL SESSION NOW

By Associated Press.

Dallas, Texas, April 15.—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson said here today she will not call a special legislative session about the disputed road bonds, because lawyers are so widely disagreed on remedies for the situation.

"It would be unwise," she said, "to call the ligislature until some remedy or relief which will meet the approval of the best judicial minds can be carried out."

TEXAS RAILROAD CONSTRUCTION IS CAUSING TROUBLES

NUMEROUS PETITIONS IN MATTER BEFORE I. C. COMMISSION

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 15.—The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe and Pecos & Northern Texas Railroads today asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to intervene and consolidate proceedings involving the proposed construction and extension of railroads in Texas and New Mexico. Four railroads are interested.

The Commission examiner, in a tentative report, recommended granting the Texas, Panhandle & Gulf authority, under certain conditions to construct a line from Fort Worth, Texas, to Tucumcari, N. M., and to extend its lines to Lubbock and Plainview, Texas, provided the latter were financed by some carrier other than the Santa Fe or Burlington. The Santa Fe, in the petition, declared that Lubbock and Plainview and tributary territory now was and will be adequately served by its subsidiary, the Pecos & Northern Texas, and that the proposed line of the Panhandle road is unnecessary.

In another petition, the Panhandle asked the Commission to deny the Sante Fe the right to intervene where the road and its subsidiaries, are unaffected by the construction.

The Dallas Chamber of Commerce declared in a petition that it was not opposed to the Santa Fe intervening, but "selfish interests" of that road should not be permitted to delay "construction of sorely needed rail facilities into the South Plains to provide shippers and communities a direct outlet to the markets of Dallas, Fort Worth and other Texas cities."

The Fort Worth & Denver, South Plains Railway and South Plains Railroad committee, in separate petitions, likewise declared they were not opposed to Santa Fe intervention provided the proceedings were not reopened for taking of additional testimony.

PLANT WIZARD TO BE LAID REST UNDER LEBANON CEDAR IN GARDEN SANTA ROSA HOME

By Associated Press.

Santa Rosa, Calif., April 14.—Just as the last rays of the setting sun brighten for a moment the flowers in the gardens of Santa Rosa, Luther Burbank will go to his final rest today, borne on the hands of old and trusted friends, to a quiet grave under a Lebanon cedar he planted many years ago.

A strange mixture of agnosticism and religion will be the sentiment of those who will gather to mourn his passing. Friends from far and near thronged here when they heard of his death early last Sunday morning, but only his widow, his sister and a chosen few of these with whom he lived and labored will be permitted to witness the final scene.

All were invited to public services among the living monuments to his memory in the trees and flowers of Doyle Park, but Burbank, unostenationous in life, preferred that his burial be clothed with simplicity.

There will be no long procession to pass the casket. No requiem music is arranged for the commitment to the grave. At the public exercises, 3,000 school children will sing. Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver, a life long friend of Burbank, is to deliver the eulogy.

The Rev. C. S. S. Dutton of San Francisco who married Mr. and Mrs. Burbank ten years ago will represent the church of which Burbank was a member but an admitted critic. And besides the few self confessed agnostics who had come to pay tribute, were many devout Christians who regarded the unorthodox view of Mr. Burbank as a matter that could not interfere with their friendship.

PLEDGE SUGGESTED FOR SCHOOL ROOMS COUNTY LIBRARIES

Speaking before the session of the Federated Womens Clubs convention Tuesday, Miss Mayme A. Waldron of Mineral Wells, suggested a pledge to be used in the school rooms in connection with the proposed establishment of county libraries throughout the state. The suggested pledge offered by Miss Waldron is as follows:

"As a loyal student of our schools and a future citizen of my country, I pledge on my honor that I will respect and protect the library books and the school library books of my fellow students. I promise to aid in the recovery of any lost book that comes to my attention by returning it to its owner."

Miss Waldron has been chairman of the Library Extension Service of the Texas Federation of Womens Clubs for the past six years, and is first district chairman, third district, and state chairman pro tem.

There are now seven county libraries in Texas, and the Federation is being asked to cooperate with the State Library in Austin and the State Library Association to have a state organizer of county libraries appointed.

MERGED RAILROAD SYSTEMS TO REMAIN UNDER OWN OFFICERS

THIS IS MADE PLAIN BY L. F. LOREE, RAILROAD MAGNATE

That the Cotton Belt, Kansas City Southern and M. K. & T. railroads will be operated each under its own management, with certain features of unification of distinct advantage to the public, was made plain by L. F. Loree, president of the Delaware & Hudson company, who passed through Corsicana late Monday completing the last lap of a tour of inspection of the lines in the Cotton Belt System in company with officials of the Cotton Belt and Katy.

The president's special pulled into Corsicana at 5:10 Monday afternoon from Tyler, where the party lunched at noon, having left Texarkana Monday morning. The train, consisting of seven private coaches and one baggage car, propelled by one of the Cotton Belt's superheated oil burning locomotives.

The train made a turn around at the Cotton Belt "Y" two miles west of the central station and headed north on the Southern Pacific for Fort Worth, where the party broke up.

In the party were C. E. Johnson, vice president and general manager of the Kansas City Southern, and W. Walters, secretary to the president; F. Ringer, chief engineer; S. P. Hardin, secretary to the vice president of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas; and F. W. Green, vice president and general manager; E. O. Griffin, assistant to the president in charge of purchases; F. H. Millard, assistant to the president in charge of accounting; J. R. Turney; general solicitor; W. S. Hanley, chief engineer; A. C. McKibbin, director of public relations; Parker Brooks Sturgis, secretary to the president; A. B. Cremer, secretary to the vice president; O. E. Sutherland, secretary to the chief engineer; and K. M. Post, division superintendent of the Cotton Belt lines.

With Mr. Loree were Daniel Upthegrove, president of the St. Louis & Southwestern railway lines; J. A. Edson, president of the Kansas City Southern; W. M. Whitenton, vice president of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas, and other officials of the three roads which have been making the tour of the Cotton Belt route.

STATISTICS SHOW INCREASED LIQUOR DRINKING CLAIMED

WETS AGAIN HAVE INNING BEFORE SENATE PROHIBITION COMMITTEE

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 13.—Three more witnesses called by the wets, told the Senate prohibition committee today that moral conditions had grown worse under the Volstead act.

One of them, Father Francis Kasaczun, of Sugar Knotch, Pa., painted for the committee a graphic picture of wide open saloons, wild carousals by young people, drunkenness in homes and intoxication among school children in the antracite towns of Pennsylvania.

Police statistics from many cities were submitted by Stanley Shirk, of the Moderation League, to support his assertions that arrests for drunkenness, particularly among automobile drivers, had taken an enormous upward swing since the dry regime came in.

The last witness of the day, Mrs. Viola Anglim, deputy chief probation officer in the New York City family court, declared cases before that court had increased since prohibition, because the wives and children are suffering more than before.

"The Probation officers under my direction tell me that in their districts you can find 150 to 200 stills," she said. "These not only are operated in cigar and other stores, but also in the home. Tenements are the homes of stills, open a door and instantly get a whiff of the stuff they make. The children are there and must know all about it."

She added that while "the material condition" of the wives and children had improved under prohibition their "moral condition" had not.

By Associated Press.

Washington, April 13.—A phalanx of statistics was marshalled before the Senate prohibition committee today by the wets in an effort to show that drunkenness has increased under the bone dry laws.

Resuming their side of the case, after a day's interlude devoted to dry testimony, the wets put on the stand Stanley Shirk, research director of the Moderation League, who produced scores of charts, maps and statistical tables from which he deduced that in 457 cities and towns arrests for drukenness increased from 258,974 in the first year of prohibition to 565,026 in 1924, four years later.

"In 350 places, according to these figures, arrests for drunkenness totalled 506,737 in 1914, and 498,752 in 1924.

"When we consider that drukenness has increased to the pre-prohibition stage and that drunken drivers and drunken children have increased far above anything ever known before in this country," said Shirk; "we cannot escape the conclusion that the Volstead act has utterly failed to do what it was intended to do, namely, promote temperance and sobriety.

"Moreover, since conditions have become worse, not better, each year and with the next generation drinking as never before, there seems to be no hope that the Volstead act in its present drastic form will accomplish its purpose in the long run.

"From the experience, before national prohibition, of the states which had restrictive laws, from the experience of the whole country during the restrictive years 1918-1919 and from the experience of the Canadian provinces, we believe that a greater degree of temperance can be attained by a wise restrictive law than by a bone dry law which does not command the respect of a large part of the people.

"We are also of the firm conviction that such a policy of wise restriction would have the incidental advantage of eliminating almost entirely the scandalous corruption and bribery of public officials, would stop the growth of the bootlegging millionaire class, would check disrespect for law, and would in addition produce a handsome national revenue."

Julien Codeman, counsel for the wets, interrupted to have it noted on the record that the moderation league "is, a temperance organization."

"I assume that is taken for granted," said Senator Harreld, Republican, of Oklahoma, the only member of the committee present at that time.

Shirk said an increase in drinking among boys and girls had "become common knowledge," but added there was a "paucity of authoritative statistics on the subject."

COLONEL WILLIAMS SCHEDULED TO TAKE STAND OWN DEFENSE

BUTLER IS CUTTING IN HIS DENUNCIATION OF MARINE HEAD

By Associated Press.

San Diego, Calif., April 13.—Defense testimony in the court-martial of Colonel Alexander S. Williams, opened here today with Lieutenant Commander Harold Willett, a navy surgeon, on the stand, as first witness for the suspended commander of the fourth regiment of marines.

Commander Willett stated that he saw and spoke to Colonel Williams at the Hotel Del Coronado on the night of March 6th; that he smelled no liquor on the Colonel's breath and noticed nothing which would justify classifying the colonel as intoxicated.

By Assopiated Press.

San Diego, Calif., April 13.—Col. Alexander S. Williams' own version of the castastrophic cocktail party that brought down upon him the official wrath of Brigadier General Smedley D. Butler, was scheduled to be told at today's session of the Colonel's court martial on a charge of appearing intoxicated in the public rooms of a Coronado hotel.

The prosecution's case against the suspended commander of the fourth regiment of marines culminated late yesterday in the spectacular testimony of General Butler, arch enemy of post-Volstead drinking and former leader of the forces of reform in Philadelphia.

From his emplacement in the witness chair the general raked the defendant colonel's reputation as an officer and gentleman with accusations that echoed through the court room in cutting denunciation. On the night of March 6th last, he vowed the one time chief of Philadelphia police, when he was a guest of honor in Col. Williams' Coronado home, this defendant colonel of marines was guilty in his home, and at the nearby hotel Del Coronado of the following:

He was loquacious; he staggered; he stared vacantly through blood-shot eyes; he was intoxicated; he was drunk; he was "full" and last and most horrible to relate of a colonel of marines, he gigled.

The conclusion of General Butler's testimony shattered the composure of what started out to be a rather quiet court martial. Three witnesses had been examined by the prosecution, all of them guests of Colonel Willams on the night of March 6th, and all of them evidently reluctant to tell the world he had been drinking.

Captain Clifton B. Cates, member of Colonel Williams staff and world war hero! Major Ross Rowell, commander of the marine corps aviation unit, and widely known flyer; Captain Charles Rice of General Butler's staff, admitted that Col. Williams might have been intoxicated; possibly was intoxicated, but that if he actually was "slightly under the influence of liquor," he certainly was "not at all boisterous."

ANOTHER FEDERAL GOVERNMENT MOVE CAUSING DISCONTENT

By Associated Press.

Juarez, Mexico, April 13.—The order of the Federal government which yesterday resulted in the closing of all private banks in Chihuahua City was issued because the banks were exporting gold to the United States and other foreign countries in violation of the Federal law, in the opinion of Mayor Alberto B. Almeida of Juarez.

Reports here said practically all business houses in Chihuahua had closed their doors in protest against the order and that considerable excitement prevailed. No copy of the order has been received here.

"The order will affect all private banking institutions in Mexico," said Elias Acosta, Jr., prominent local banker, last night. "We consider enforcement of the measure dependent on the personal judgment of the Federal district attorney in Chihuahua City. We do not think it will be backed by the National Banking Commission or the state treasury."

The Federal district attorney here said yesterday that he considered the proceeding unlawful.

"I am advised that the Chihuahua city Federal authorities took soldiers and police with them when they went to confiscate the gold in the private banks. The police were posted at the doors, the safes were opened and the gold taken. The Federal Judge in Chihuahua City issued the order on complaint of the Federal district attorney.

"All privately owned banks in the state of Chihuahua have big reserves in cash which are 80 or 90 per cent of their deposits."

The Chihuahua City investment company bank, the largest in Chihuahua City, Mexico, re-opened today and the other two banks closed yesterday are expected to open soon, it is stated in a telegram received here by Elias Acosta, Jr., Juarez banker. The banks were closed when depositors became frightened upon seeing soldiers and police stationed in the institutions, and started a run. The telegram stated that the depositors had been calmed and that withdrawals had stopped.

The soldiers and police were stationed in the banks to enforce a court order forbidding the melting of Mexican gold coins and sending them into the United States.

SENATOR M'KINLEY LOSES CONTEST FOR RENOMINATION ILLINOIS PRIMARY TUESDAY

By Associated Press.

Chicago, April 14. — Colonel Frank L. Smith, foe of the world court, has been nominated by Illinois republicans as their senatorial candidate over Senator William B. McKinley, who voted for the measure in the Senate.

He will be opposed in the November election by George E. Brennan, democratic chieftain and an avowed wet, who distanced his two ribals by an overwhelming vote.

Senator McKinley's vote for American adherance to the world court was made the chief issue of Colonel Smith's campaign an dthe latter's aides attributed his victory to his stand against the measure. It was the first opportunity voters had to register their feelings toward the proposal since anti-world court forces started their campaign to defeat senators who voted for adherance.

Senator McKinley returned to Illinois from Washington to defend his vote on the ground of party regularity and unsupport of President Coolidge.

The statewide primary yesterday, which was marked by the death of six persons in riots in Herrin and by considerable shooting and disorder in Chicago, saw victory for a boxing bill in this city and in several downstate municipalities. Chicago also approved bond issues totalling nearly $20,000,000, one of which provides for a zoological park.

Incomplete returns indicated the defeat of Mrs. Bertha Baur, north side society woman, who opposed Representative Fred A. Britten for the Republican nomination for Congress, in a fight in which each vied in telling which was the wetter.

Brennan predicted "a sweeping victory for the entire ticket in the November election," and his supporters interpreted his easy win as a "decisive indorsement of his platform for modification of the dry law."

Nominees for congressmen at large were Richard Yates and John Rathbone, Republican incumbents, and Charles A. Karch, East St. Louis, and Frank J. Wise, Joliet, Democrats. Returns on the congressional contests drifted in slowly, but among the almost certain winners, was Martin B. Madden, incumbent, in the first district.

LYNCH DAVIDSON SUPPORTERS MEET TO PLAN CAMPAIGN

At a meeting of a few of the friends and supporters of Hon. Lynch Davidson Tuesday, it was decided to effect an organization of his supporters to push his claims before the voters, and to invite him here to speak during the campaign.

The discussion was in the nature of a conference. The opinion expressed being that Davidson's candidacy was meeting a gratifying response from the voters.

Call for a meeting of Davidson's friends was agreed upon, and signatures to the call are being secured.

Those in the conference were, Bill Penland, Jake Hudson, Chas. Jester, C. L. Jester, W. A. Tarver, Geo. Herod, Geo. Baum, A. A. Allison and C. A. Gordon.

Davidson's friends and advisers declare he is well and favorably known all over Texas, and is easily leading the other candidates. Another conference will be held Thursday at 10 a. m. to further promote Davidson's interest.

WOMAN ATTEMPTING LIFE OF MUSSOLINI SECURED COUNSEL

By Associated Press.

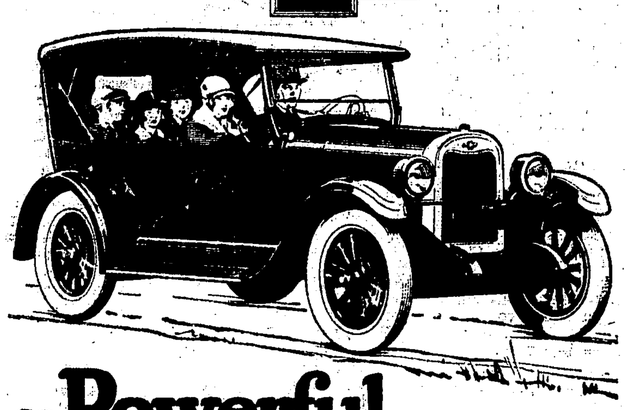

Rome, April 13.—Lord Ashbourne and Lady Constance Gibson have chosen Deputy Enrico Ferri as counsel for their sister, the Honorable Violet Albina Gibson, who last Wednesday shot and wounded Premier Mussolini.

Deputy Ferri is considered one of the greatest exponents of Italian criminal law. Lord Ashbourne and Lady Constance hope he will succeed in proving Miss Gibson irresponsible, owing to her mental condition, and obtain her acquital at the conclusion of the preliminary investigation.

She would thus avoid being brought to trial, being turned over instead to her relatives for proper care.

HOUSTON MAN IS DIRECTOR GENERAL TEXAS CENTENNIAL

LOWRY MARTIN OF CORSICANA TO CONTINUE AS SECRETARY

Houston, Texas, April 15.—Jesse H. Jones, Houston capitalist, who directed the financial affairs of the National Democratic executive committee in the John W. Davis campaign, was Wednesday chosen permanent director general of the Texas Centennial celebration. Mr. Jones has accepted the appointment, thereby, in the opinion of his friends, guaranteeing the success of the movement.

Mr. Jones succeeds Cato Sells, who has served as temporary director since the inception of the movement about one year ago.

Referring to his acceptance of the post, Mr. Jones said:

"I appreciate the great honor conferred upon me by the Texas Centennial Committee in asking me to take the leadership of the Centennial movement. Naturally, I have not had time to outline any plans, but, of course, we must have a suitable Centennial to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the independence of our great state and with the help and co-operation of all the people of Texas, I will do what I can to promote such a celebration."

Action taken here Wednesday recalls the fact that at a meeting of the governing board of 100 members held at Dallas several months Cago Cato Sells, temporary chairman, told the committee that the time had come when a permanent director general should be selected and asked that his resignation as chairman be accepted.

A committee was appointed to select a permanent chairman. The committee was composed of the followings members: Louis Lipsitz, Cato Sells, Lowry Martin, Cullen T. Thomas, Mrs. Alec L. Adams, Oscar F. Holsombe, T. P. Buffington, J. K. Hughes, George H. Slater and Benton McMillan.

After carefully considering the matter, the committee unanimously agreed to ask Jesse H. Jones to take the leadership. Accordingly the full nominating committee met at the Rice Hotel, Houston, Wednesday morning with Mr. Jones, Chairman Liptisz, Cato Sells and Hon. Cullen F. Thomas presented the desire of the committee to Mr. Jones and earnestly urged his acceptance. Sells and Thomas reviewed the history of the Centennial organization from its inception outlined its purpose and brought to the attention of Mr. Jones the opportunity to celebrate the patriotism of he past, the accomplishments of a hundred years and the possibilities of the future.

To the great delight of the committee, Mr. Jones accepted the leadership, and was enthusiastically presented by Chairman Lipsitz to the committee as the director general of the Centennial Celebration.

It was announced that Lowry Martin of Corsicana will continue to act as temporary secretary.

Judge Cato Sells, retiring temporary chairman of the Centennial said:

"During the last two years the seed has been sown from which has sprung up a healthy public sentiment and splendid organization.

"The public does not yet fully appreciate the bigness of this patriotic enterprise. The possibilities for the material development of the state are beyond present comprehension. The process of accomplishment involves much and I am sure that as director general Jesse H. Jones will meet every requirement. The state is to be congratulated on his acceptance."

Cullen F. Thomas, member of the board, said:

"The Centennial board deeply appreciates the patriotic service rendered by Judge Cato Sells, who for nearly two years, has given unstintedly of his time, energies and suubstance. We are happy to know that he will continue his active interest in the years yet ahead in support of this enterprise which lies so near his heart. The state owes him a debt of gratitude.

"In the selection of Jesse H. Jones as director general the man and the job have met. The committee recognizes in him a rare combination of native ability, business initiative and genius for accomplishment."

THE TRUTH IS ENOUGH

The best thing about telling the truth in advertising is that it's the easiest thing.

When the merchandise is right and the prices represent the real value to the buyer, the truth is enough.

We're sure of the facts about this store — and about Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes.

And we tell them to you because they bring profit to you and to us.

Better Satisfaction at Your Phone than you can get from the Peddler At Your Door

In the fifteen minutes it takes a peddler to demonstrate a single article in his stock at your door, we could deliver the same thing or anything else our whole store carries, right to your door. Cut your time down to the ten seconds required to telephone. After the peddler is gone you can't add to your order, you can't subtract your order if you regret it, you get no comeback if the goods turn out to be bad. What a difference when you trade with your druggist. We guarantee satisfaction and service at all times in all transactions.

CORSICANA MAN IS NAMED PRESIDENT OF DRY GOODS MEN

J. M. DYER, SR., HEADS TEXAS RETAIL DRY GOODS ASSOCIATION

Dallas, Texas, April 15.—New officers of the Texas Retail Dry Goods Association were elected Wednesday afternoon at the final session of the convention at the Adolphus Hotel.

J. M. Dyer, Corsicana, was chosen president of the association for 1926-27, succeeding George S. Cohen of Houston. Other officers elected were Gilbert Lang, San Antonio, first vice president; J. W. Scarborough, Austin, second vice president; Horace H. Landauer, Dallas, treasurer; F. E. Morris, Dallas, executive secretary and manager, and Col. John L. Peeler, Austin, general counsel.

Mr. Cohen, retiring president, and Arthur L. Kramer, Dallas, also past president, were added to the executive board as ex-officio members at its meeting Wednesday afternoon. No meeting place for the 1927 convention was chosen by the board.

Officers were elected by the directors, who were chosen by the convention proper. Directors re-elected Wednesday were H. C. Meacham, Fort Worth; A. C. Richter, Laredo; A. L. Kramer, Dallas; J. W. Scarborough, Austin; B. A. Fain, Brownwood, and J. M. Dyer, Corsicana. New directors elected were Emanuel Schwartz, El Paso; Ed Oppenheimer, Mission; T. H. Williams, Austin; J. W. Gray, Denton; Louis M. Smythe, Uvalde, and A. M. Levy, Sweetwater.

Resolutions were passed protesting against the proposed price-fixing bill in Congress, asking for immediate action toward more equitable revision of the postal rates and thanking those who helped make the convention a success.

In memory of four Texas pioneer merchants who died during the last year, Alex Sanger, Dallas; Alex Josky, San Antonio; E. M. Scarborough, Austin, and A. M. Levy, Houston, the convention paused in its deliberations for a full minute, also passing a resolution of regret.

The principal address of the final session was by J. B. Swinney, formerly with Lord & Taylor, New York, but now with Sanger Bros., and regional director for the Southern States for the merchandist managers' group of the National Retail Dry Goods Association. Mr. Swinney spoke on "Co-operative Efforts in Developing Better Merchandising Methods," and illustrated his talk with charts.

Fort Worth merchants had charge of the question box, which was declared by President Cohen to have been the best in the history of the association. Topics discussed ranged all the way from discounts to remuneration of employes.

Col. John L. Peeler of Austin, counsel for the association, made his report at the opening of the morning session. Short talks on six phases of salesmanship followed. Joe M. Dawson spoke on general advertising, H. D. Guy on newspaper advertising, Hix Smith on direct by mail advertising, J. C. McKeever on outdoor advertising, J. P. Simpson on screen advertising and Milt Pandres on dry goods store copy. The morning session was concluded with a round-table discussion on "The Good of the Association."

Sunshine Welcomed By Navarro County

With the sun appearing on the job Thursday morning after an absence of some weeks, members of the Agricultural Committee, fostering the $1000 Feed Contest, were in a hopeful frame of mind.

Navarro county farmers who have dropped in the Chamber of Commerce office the past few days to make inquiries about the Feed Campaign declare that with the coming of sunshine and dry weather the fertile fields of the county will take on an activity which will make the proverbial bee hive look like a bunch of idlers.

"There is no danger of our county going feed wild—the object of this campaign is to help our county to be feed wise," said a member of the committee. "With a splendid season and with anything like favorable weather in the next month or so, there seems to be plenty of opportunity for growing a reasonable feed crop."

Pleasant Grove Methodist.

Let everybody of the Pleasant Grove community feel that they have an interest in the social, moral and religious welfare of their community and should, therefore, "Remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy." "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together, as is the manner of some," but come to church next Sunday. You owe this respect to yourself, to your home community, and to your God. We are interested in you. Are you interested in yourself, in your soul, in your eternal welfare, in humanity? If so, will you manifest this interest by coming to church next Sunday? Let every member come and bring some one.
